PURCHASE OF UGANDA PUBLIC SERVICE STANDING ORDERS

PP 219

The Ministry of Public Service under Establishment Notice No. 2 of 2010 issued the revised Uganda Public Service Standing Orders (2010) and availed two copies of the Standing Orders to each Ministry, Department and Local Government.

The Ministry of Public Service has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Uganda Printing and Publishing Corporation (UPPC), with the latter covenanting to print and sale copies of the Uganda Public Service Standing Orders to all authorized institutions across the Public Service.

Amount?

The purpose of this communication therefore, is to inform you that, Uganda Printing and Publishing Corporation, a Government body which is authorized to publish Government official documents has already commenced the production of the Uganda Public Service Standing Orders.

As you are aware, you are obliged to ensure that each Unit under your Ministry, Department or Local Government has a copy of the Uganda Public Service Standing Orders, in line with the Provisions on "Applicability and powers of interpretation, waiver and amendment", Page xiv, paragraph 7. Respective Responsible Officers should also ensure that primary and post primary schools have copies of the Public Service Standing orders.

You should therefore, make arrangements to purchase the Standing Orders from the Uganda Printing and Publishing Corporation who can be contacted on:
